

Top Ten Reasons Repealing ObamaCare Key to Creating Jobs, Reducing Deficit

1. $1.094 trillion in new taxes

(According to an analysis by the Senate Finance Committee Republican Tax Staff derived from projections by the Senate Budget Committee Republican Staff (March 21, 2010) based on estimates by the CBO and The Joint Committee on Taxation)

2. $701 billion added to the deficit

(Report by the House Budget Committee, "The Budget Record of the 111th Congress: More Spending, Taxes, Deficits and Debt," September 29, 2010)

3. $2,100 increase in premiums

(Letter from the Congressional Budget Office to Senator Evan Bayh regarding health care premiums, November 30, 2009)

4. 3.2 million jobs put at risk

(Report issued by the International Franchise Association)

5. 800,000 jobs lost

(Testimony of Douglas W. Elmendorf, Director, Congressional Budget Office, House Budget Committee Hearing "The Congressional Budget Office's Budget and Economic Outlook," February 10, 2011)

6. $118 billion in new costs to states

(Joint Report by the Senate Finance Committee and House Energy and Commerce Committee, Medicaid Expansion in the New Health Law: Costs To The States, March 1, 2011)

7. $311 billion increase in projected health costs

(Report from Richard S. Foster, Chief Actuary at the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services, April 22, 2010)

8. 10.7% increase in prescription drug spending in 2014

("National Health Spending Projections Through 2020: Economic Recovery And Reform Drive Faster Spending Growth," Health Affairs, July 28, 2011)

9. 8.9% increase in physician and clinical services in 2014

("National Health Spending Projections Through 2020: Economic Recovery And Reform Drive Faster Spending Growth," Health Affairs, July 28, 2011)

10. 7.2% increase in hospital spending in 2014

("National Health Spending Projections Through 2020: Economic Recovery And Reform Drive Faster Spending Growth," Health Affairs, July 28, 2011)